BYLAWS

PREFACE

The Bylaws of the Electric Boat Management Association, Inc., hereinafter referred to as "The Association", establish the rules that are in the best interests of the Association and help to eliminate unnecessary controversy and loss of time in discussion and research. The Bylaws in no way shall be used to amend or supersede the Constitution of said Association. In case of conflict, the Constitution shall hold precedence.

ARTICLE I - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Admission to Membership: Every eligible person desiring membership in the Association shall submit to the Booster-Membership Committee a properly completed application form.

Section 2. Ineligibility: Members whose job classification is changed so that they are no longer eligible will have their membership terminated in the Association to coincide with the date of the change.

Section 3. Resignation or Termination: Membership in the Association shall cease upon any of the following events:

- A. Written resignation to the President of the Association.
- B. Failure to pay dues.
- C. Loss of eligibility. (Constitution, Article II, Section 1)

Section 4. Life Retirement Members: Members in good standing who retire from Electric Boat are presented a Life Retirement Membership and suitable recognition. Life retirement members are exempted from paying annual dues for their lifetime and are entitled to all privileges of the Association except voting or holding office.

Section 5. Life Members: Members, upon completion of a term of office as President or Chairperson of the Board, are presented a lifetime paid-up membership by the incoming officers and directors. Life members are exempted from paying annual dues or subscriptions for their lifetime as long as each is employed at Electric Boat Division and fulfills the membership requirements stated in ARTICLE II, Section 1- MEMBERSHIP of the Constitution.

Section 6. Reinstatement: Persons who have terminated their membership because of provisions contained in ARTICLE I, section 3, of the Bylaws may be reinstated to membership upon application, provided such persons re-qualify for membership in accordance with ARTICLE II, Section I, of the Constitution.

ARTICLE II - ELIGIBILITY OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Section 1. President and Vice-President: Any nominee for this position shall have been a member of the Association for two years before taking office and shall have been a member of the board of directors, an officer, a director of the administration, held the office of the Vice-President or served as a Booster Manager, for one term before taking office.

Section 2. Secretary, Treasurer and Directors: Any nominee for these positions shall have been a member of the organization for one year before taking office.

Section 3. Re-Election: After serving a full term, no officer or director may be re-elected to serve more than two consecutive terms in the same office.

Section 4. Holding Office: No officer or director shall hold more than one elected office concurrently. A director having served a minimum of one year in his/her term may be a candidate for another office, provided that he/she resigns from office prior to the beginning of the start of the second office.

ARTICLE III - DUES

Section 1. Payment of Dues: Payment of member's dues will be by payroll deduction of $2.00 per pay period.

ARTICLE IV - DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Chairperson of the Board: Each new Board of Directors shall elect one of its members as its Chairperson. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall: preside at all meetings of the board, designate one of the remaining directors as an alternate; serve as the designated registered agent in the Articles of Incorporation of the Association and receive all official documents related to litigation; assign a specific area of responsibility to each remaining director to enhance their participation in the functioning of the Association; appoint a Long Range Planning Committee to develop and maintain a long-range plan that will provide meaningful goals for the Association; serve as a guide for the Association's current activities or assign responsibility for such a committee to another member of the Board of Directors; be responsible for audit of the Treasurer's books quarterly or upon a change of Treasurer and together with the President, represent the Association in any conduct of association financial business with the Company.

Section 2. President: The President shall be responsible to the Board of Directors and the members for the satisfactory operation of the Association in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws and policy established by the Board of Directors; preside at all regular and special meetings of the Association; be present at all meetings of the Board Directors; submit an annual report of Association activities to the entire membership; hire and supervise any employee to the Association; appoint a director to all standing and special committees except those, committees, created by the Chairperson of the Board; and together with the Chairperson of the Board, represent the Association in any conduct of association financial business with the Company. The President shall present his/her programs to the Board of Directors in writing for compliance review, semi-annually at the July and January Board meetings; and changes to these programs must be similarly reviewed. Concurrent with the July review of programs, the President will address how he plans to adjust and/or recommend changes for BoD approval considering the 'target cash on hand' goal stated in Article XII Section 2.

Section 3. Vice President: The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, perform the duties of the President.

A. Vice-President: shall be present at all meetings of the Association and Board of Directors.

Section 4. Secretary: The Secretary shall be present at all regular meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors, keep the minutes of the Board meetings, and perform such other duties pertaining to that office as may be designated by the President including, but not limited, to the following: maintain official correspondence of the Association; determine eligibility of applicants and members.

Section 5. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall receive all moneys and deposit them to the credit of the Association in such depositories as may be approved by the Board of Directors; pay all bills, duly approved in writing by the President or his designated alternate; keep book accounts of receipts and expenditures which shall be open at all times for inspection by the Board of Directors; make monthly reports to the Board of Directors and prepare financial reports to the Board of Directors within 30 days of the close of the fiscal year. Quarterly and when there is a change of Treasurer, the financial records of the Association will be audited by a committee designated by the Chairperson of the Board. The treasurer and assistant treasurer are to receive an annual stipend in the amount of $400/$300 respectively, at the end of the budget year. The incumbent president shall appoint a qualified member to serve as the assistant treasurer, prior to the beginning of the fiscal year.

Section 6. Board of Directors: The Board of Directors shall be the policy-making body of the Association; continuously observe performance of the Association to ensure the Constitution, Bylaws, and Board policies are being observed; be responsible for setting immediate goals for the current administrative year and long-range goals for future Association achievement; be custodian of the Constitution and Bylaws; accept the audit committee reports; and shall assure that the President's programs are presented to the Board in order to ensure that the programs comply with the Constitution and Bylaws and established policies and are in the best interests of the Association. The Board of Directors may discharge a director or officer for failure to fulfill his/her duties or gross misconduct by a two-third Board vote at a regular Board meeting, provided; however, that the Directors shall be duly notified in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to said meeting. The Board of Directors shall use the Executive Advisory Committee (as defined in Bylaws Article V, Section 4) as required for advice and guidance, and must notify the Executive Advisory Committee of the first three meetings of each new Board.

ARTICLE V - COMMITTEES

Section 1. Standing Committee: All appointments of members to standing committees shall be made by the Chairperson of the Board.

- A. Program: The Program Committee shall plan, organize, and execute all phases of programs for each regular membership meeting. It shall coordinate its planning with that of the Management Development Committee.
- B. Booster-Membership: The Booster Director shall plan, organize, and execute a training program for boosters; conduct a constant program for enlisting new members; and promote the organization.
- C. Management Development: The Management Development Director shall plan a program of management development activities, aside from the monthly membership meetings in conjunction with the Program Committee. It shall regularly consult company executives, the Manager of Management Services, the Board of Directors, past officers, and a sampling of the membership.
- D. Community Activities Committee: The Community Activities Committee shall organize and execute programs which promote a better understanding and improve the relationships between our Association and the communities in our area. It shall be responsible for recognizing the sick and bereaved members, and awards program to honor the sons and daughters of members for outstanding scholastic achievement, and youth activities in general.
 - 1. Retirement Sub-Committee: The retirement committee shall organize and execute a program to honor all members retiring from the company. It shall be responsible for stimulating involvement of retired members in all activities of the Association.
- E. Communications Committee: The Communication Committee shall plan, organize and execute communication as required to support the function process of the association. The committee will be responsible for the Communiqué as well as the EBMA website. It shall also provide support to the President's Staff for marketing programs, flyer preparation and e-mail communication.
- F. EBMA Office: The Office Committee shall plan, organize and execute all aspects of office administration as required to support the functional process of the Association. The committee will maintain an office that shall provide support required by other committees and the membership. It shall also provide a central file and administrative support for the President's Staff and Retirees.

Section 2. Special Committees: All appointments of members to special committees shall be made by the Director of that committee unless previously designated by the President.

Section 3. Finance Committee: The Board of Directors shall serve as the Finance Committee with responsibility for approval of the annual budget to be submitted by the President. All expenditures within the budget are subject to approval of the President and Treasurer. Any change or transfer of funds must have prior approval from the Board of Directors; any additional financial commitments must have prior approval from the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Executive Advisor Committee: This committee is established to provide a long-range chapter continuity to the Board of Directors. It has a responsibility to advise and guide the Board. The two (2) different people most recently elected to Board Chair and the two (2) different people most recently elected to membership President will constitute this committee, four (4) total. In the event one or more of these active members currently serves as a board member, or a qualifying member desires not to be included, the Board Chair may nominate willing active members based on prior service to the chapter. A majority vote of the Board confirms selection. As board advisors, attendance to board and membership meetings are essential. The board will monitor meeting attendance and may remove by majority vote those found lacking in participation.

Section 5. Public Relations: The Public Relations Committee shall keep the public informed of the activity of the organization and shall also be responsible for publicity and publications within the Association.

ARTICLE VI - VACANCIES OF OFFICE

Section 1. Appointment: If a vacancy occurs in an elective office during the year, the Board of Directors shall appoint, with the President's (or his alternates) concurrence, a qualified member to serve for the balance of the term except that the President's concurrence is not required on the appointment of a new Board member.

Section 2. In the event of a tie or absence of an apparent winner for any office during the annual election, the Board of Directors will determine the winner of the office or offices in question. That determination will be made by secret ballot at a meeting of the Board of Directors; the majority vote will prevail.

ARTICLE VII - NOMINATING AND ELECTION PROCEDURE

Section 1. Election Committee: The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall appoint an Election committee, consisting of two (2) board members. None shall be a candidate for office. The names of those serving on the committee shall be announced at the December membership meeting.

Section 2. Committee Instructions: The Election Committee shall nominate candidates and preferably not more than three (3) where practical for each office and directorship whose terms are expiring. The list of candidates selected by the Election Committee shall be submitted to the membership at a regular meeting approximately thirty (30) days in advance of election. At that time additional nominations may be made from the floor upon recognition from the chair.

Section 3. Procedures and Time of Election: The election shall be conducted during the month of March and the results shall be announced at the first business meeting to follow the election. Mail ballots may be used but must be returned in time for tabulation before the election meeting; those received after that date shall be null and void. In the event that there are only enough candidates to fill each office and directorship, whose terms are expiring, the current Board of Directors may, in order to save the association the costs associated with conducting an election, elect the slate at the April Board of Directors meeting.

ARTICLE VIII - MEETINGS

Section 1. Membership Meeting: Regular meetings shall generally be held on a Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday during the third week of the month. At least twenty (20) days notice will be given to the membership.

Section 2. Annual Meeting: This meeting shall be held within sixty (60) days prior to the new administrative year and shall include installation of board members and officers.

Section 3. Special Meetings: These meetings shall be called for a specific purpose only; no other business shall be transacted at this meeting. Special meetings may be called by the President, a majority of the Board of Directors, or one-third of the membership. The membership must be given ten (10) days notice before the meeting.

Section 4. Board of Directors Meetings: The monthly board meetings should be approximately two weeks before the membership meetings on dates chosen by the Chairperson of the Board, and/or meet at least once a month with the exception of the summer break, if there are no meetings.

Section 5. Ceremonies at Meetings: Invocation before meals and the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America shall be given at each membership meeting.

ARTICLE IX - MANAGEMENT SEMINARS AND CONFERENCES

(This section was deleted as any attendance at management seminars and conferences are covered under ARTICLE X).

ARTICLE X - EXPENSES OF ASSOCIATION MEMBERS

Section 1. Travel Allowances: The Association will pay for all actual, reasonable and necessary expense incurred by members conducting business in behalf of the Association in accordance with Electric Boat Division Standard Practice Nos. 8-2, 8-9 and as further defined in Policies and Procedures Statement 3-1. All other actual, reasonable, and necessary expenses are allowed only if approved by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Special Provisions: Registration cost including special luncheons or dinners will be paid in addition to travel expense by the Association for all delegates or representatives approved by the Board of Directors, to a Management Conference or any special seminars.

Section 3. (This section was deleted for expenditure procedures; see Policies and Procedures Statement 3-1).

ARTICLE XI - AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendments: Amendments must be proposed in writing to the Board of Directors. Bylaws may be amended by the approval signature of eight of the eleven Board members, if the Board fails to approve or disapprove by majority of eight within sixty (60) days of receipt of such proposal, then the vote shall go to the entire membership who shall receive notification of the proposed amendment at least thirty (30) days in advance of their vote. Approval by two-thirds of the members present and voting at a regular or special meeting of the Association is then required.

ARTICLE XII - GENERAL

Section 1. Fiscal and Administrative Year.

Fiscal Year: The fiscal year of the Association will commence January 1st, and conclude December 31st.

Administrative Year: The administrative year of the Association will commence July 1st, and conclude June 30th, of the following year.

Section 2. Annual Budget: The President of the Association shall receive from the Treasurer and submit to the President-elect, by June 1, the annual financial report for the prior fiscal year. The annual budget shall be submitted by the President to the Chairperson of the Board at least 60 days prior to the end of the fiscal year. The proposed budget will be voted on by the Board of Directors prior to the beginning of the fiscal year for which the proposed budget is intended. If the budget does not pass a majority vote of the Board of Director before the start of the new fiscal year, any required line item expenditures must be presented by the President and approved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors in advance of committing any funds until the budget is approved. A goal of the proposed budget should be to recommend programs and expenditures resulting in an end of fiscal year total cash on hand of $50,000 - $100,000. The cash on hand calculation will include savings, checking, expected income, payment of received and expected bills through the end of the fiscal year; but not the anticipated corporate contribution.

Section 3. Subsidization: To defray individual members' cost in programs sponsored by the Association, the President or Chairperson of the Board is authorized to approve subsidies of up to 40% of the meal cost associated with any program. Subsidies greater than 40% and all meals associated with management development courses or seminars must be approved in advance by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Succession of Officers: The order of succession to the office of President shall be:

- A. Vice-President
- B. Chairperson of the Board of Directors
